

Kasabuski scores Absenteeism

W.H.A. MEETING STOPS DEAD

The annual meeting of the Wilmington Housing Authority lasted exactly 14 minutes, Tuesday evening.

It began late, at 10:06 pm, and it was over at 10:20 pm when member Ralph Peterson resigned, and acting Chairman Mrs M Flora Kasabuski declared the meeting ended for lack of a quorum.

The regular meeting was scheduled to begin at 7:30 pm. Members M. Flora Kasabuski and James Donahue were present at that time, but, there was no quorum and they could not start.

They waited until 9 pm., at which time Peterson arrived in his work clothing. He had to work late, as a longshoreman, in Boston. The regular meeting then began at 9, with Chairman Peterson in charge. It was completed at 10:06 pm.

At 10:06 pm Donahue moved that the Authority go into its annual meeting. He was seconded by Mrs. Kasabuski.

Peterson: Well -- I'll accept the motion. -- I have a feeling I'm going to be sick.

Donahue: I move that the annual meeting be adjourned to March 16 at 7:30 pm.

Mrs. Kasabuski would not second the motion. After a two minute wait, Peterson declared the motion dead.

Mrs. Kasabuski: There are only five members in this Housing Authority. Somebody has got to be chairman. Somebody has got to be vice chairman, treasurer, assistant treasurer, and so forth.

Since Ed is Forrest has been only two times in nine months, it would be ridiculous for us to vote him in as chairman, but somebody has got to vote for him for some position, whether you like it or not.

Peterson: There must be some reason why --

Donahue: Look it up! You've got the records, Ralph.

Mrs. Kasabuski: I haven't been keeping records on Ernie Crispone is generally here. He is a working man, and belongs to various organizations --

Peterson: I am not going to make any statement.

Mrs. Kasabuski: Nor am I making any excuses for Forrest.

Gas Installation Report

Harold Shea reported that he had met with the Permanent Building Committee and had been informed of the thorough investigation this committee had made concerning a gas installation in the proposed West Intermediate School.

The installation charges, the maintenance of the system, safety controls and the satisfactory result of similar installations in other communities, he said, were pertinent areas investigated.

The installation of a gas system eliminates the use of tanks, pumps, etc., he had been told, and so keeps to a minimum the initial charges.

A savings over the years would be realized, he said, because all maintenance is done by the Gas Company.

He stated that the Building Committee had explained that the safe guards, which included electronic equipment, valves, etc., are very rigid. A commercial installation such as this, he said, had been found satisfactory in other towns. Billerica, he cited, had two schools with gas and 1 Junior

Burnap Street Cops won the latest Riot

Wilmington's Police Department came out on top, in the latest riot to occur in Wilmington. They suffered no injuries of any kind, except the loss of a pair of handcuffs which a prisoner was wearing when he disappeared.

There are several versions of the story in Wilmington. All of them agree that the action, or part of it, took place in a Burnap Street home. Some of the stories say that some of the earlier action took place on Grove Avenue, near Main Street -- but the police know nothing of this.

No names have been released by the Wilmington police because they are still looking for the fellow who disappeared wearing a set of Wilmington handcuffs, and further the police are still considering whether to bring charges against just a couple of individuals, or a lot of them.

Further, Wilmington's Chief of Police, Paul J. Lynch, doesn't want the members of the two gangs to know of each other's names, for fear they will search each other out and resume the fighting.

Burnap Street Home

The home where the action took place, last Saturday evening, on Burnap Street, has been the scene of similar disturbances in the past, according to neighbors, but not as violent as that of Saturday, when, the neighbors said, there was screaming and shouting, and racing around the yard at midnight -- enough for several murders

Two Gangs

According to the Wilmington police version of the Saturday fight there were two different groups of men involved. They used the word 'gangs'.

One was of about ten men who accompanied four girls, and were guests of the Burnap Street home.

The other was of four men, all Wilmington residents, and well known to many Wilmington residents.

The first group were the guests of a daughter of the family, who now lives in Boston. They came out with her, from South Boston, Saturday evening.

Included in the first group was a small man, 5 foot 3 inches in height, who the Wilmington police have dubbed 'The Human Buzz Saw' and 'Henry Armstrong'. It was he who escaped, about midnight, with Tommy Brennan's handcuffs holding his two hands together.

Chamber of Commerce

Webber is Executive Secretary

Stanley Webber, Main Street, was appointed Executive Secretary of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, in a meeting held on Tuesday.

He is replacing Charles H. Black who submitted a resignation for reasons of health.

A resident of Wilmington for 55 years, Mr Webber is the former Principal Assessor of Wilmington who was fired by Town Manager Gerald Bouchard, 18 months ago.

His actions with previous Town Managers had helped to induce a number of industries to locate here, including General Thermodynamics, Waltham Door & Window, Sweetheart Plastics, Mystic Trans formers and Webtex.

Mr Webber served on the Wilmington Board of Appeals for five years, and twelve years on the Wilmington Finance Committee, before being appointed Principal Assessor. He served in that post for five years.

A graduate of Bentley College, he has been active with the Wilmington Community Fund for six years, two of which he served as president.

ther, He has not been seen since. At least one of the Wilmington group is an ex jail bird.

A member of the Wilmington gang, hearing that his former girl friend was in the home on Burnap Street, was the person who started the riot, according to the police, when he invaded the place.

THE MISSING INGREDIENT

The Finance Committee Report, which should be in the hands of the voters at this time, is indeed a curious document.

It has incorporated some arguments which, it would seem, have no place in a Finance Committee Report. At least they have no place with reference to the particular items involved.

The Finance Committee has all the right in the world to say what it please, but there is an obligation to be relevant and informative. It's approach to the use of Federal funds can best be termed irrelevant and unimaginative.

Back in 1956 the Town of Wilmington obtained its first Federal Planning Grant, the result of which was the increasingly famous 1957 Master Plan.

Thereafter the town received additional Federal Planning Grants to prepare the 1960 Capital Outlay Program. These Federal monies are from what is known as 'Section 701 - Urban Planning Assistance Grants'.

These grants are not repayable. They are outright matching grants, in which Uncle Sam puts up $2 for each $1 contributed by the town, for planning purposes.

There is another kind of Federal money - which received a sort of back handed recognition from the Finance Committee. This is the so-called Public Facilities Planning Advance, which Wilmington has also used to its advantage in past years.

Public Facilities Planning money is in effect an interest free loan to the town, to design almost any kind of public facility, whether on a preliminary or final basis.

This 'Planning Advance' is repayable out of the funds which become available for construction. It should be emphasized that these funds are repayable only if the facility is actually built. This may seem an odd way of doing business, but the purpose behind it is quite clear. The Congress wants to encourage cities and towns to build up a shelf of public works plans, which could be put out to contract almost immediately, if the country were to have another depression.

Wilmington's partly finished sewer system was laid out under such a planning advance. Since it is only partly constructed, only part of the Planning Advance has had to be repaid.

The Finance Committee has taken the position that because these monies have to be repaid they should be used only 'when an element of risk is involved', - such as searching for well fields.

Some people think that there is an element of risk in proposing a new town hall to a town meeting. Others feel that we need a town hall but it should be deferred for a couple of years until the town builds a new library.

The advantage of using a 'Planning Advance' is that the town can have its cake and eat it too.

It could prepare plans for both the Town Hall and the Library, then build one immediately, and defer the other. Until these are built there is no cost to the town for designing them.

Referring back to the 701 Planning Assistance:

As noted, this is an outright grant, from a Federal Agency. It can be used for many kinds of planning. For example, it could provide the necessary technical assistance to produce a new building by-law, or to support the planning for the Conservation Commission. Obviously it can be applied to the work of the Planning Board, including the paying for all continuing expert advice.

The Missing Ingredient

The missing ingredient in the Finance Committee report is imagination.

Article 32 will call for money for the Conservation Commission. The commission wants $5000, mainly for planning.

The Finance Committee has approved of the sum of $250. It uses language 'at present the commission requests money on the basis of what it 'may do' '.

This is exactly the point that the Conservation Commission is bringing up. It hopes it may do many things. The Conservation Commission wants to plan its work for the years ahead.

There is no reason why the Conservation Commission and the Planning Board, between themselves, couldn't use the 701 money for planning; money that would not have to be repaid to the Federal Government.

It would have been nice if the Finance Committee had recognized this point.

The same applies to the problem of the drafting of a building by-law, which now seems to be bogged down. The Planning Board and the Building By-Law Committee could work together, using Planning Funds to draft an adequate building code.

Further there are many unresolved planning questions pertaining to the proposed Public Library and Town Hall.

The town is being asked to appropriate money for Library Plans. Instead it should be asked to appropriate money for planning.

What kind of a library does Wilmington need? What sort of facilities should it provide? How large should it be? Where should it be located? These are not construction questions. These are questions that must be answered before one starts 'preliminary' construction plans.

The same questions can be asked about a Town Hall. In both cases, the planning problems should be solved before the Permanent Building Committee is assigned the task of building these structures.

The Library Trustees and the Planning Board should find the answers for the Public Library. The Selectmen and the Town Manager should join the Planning Board in finding similar answers for the Town Hall.

The Town Meeting warrant contains many articles pertaining to public improvements. There is no reason why the town cannot extend the 1960 Capital Outlay Program to enumerate all needed improvements and then to schedule completion over a period of years. This has the advantage of letting everyone know what are the real priorities. In addition it would provide the Town Meeting with a standard for approving and disapproving articles competing for scarce tax dollars.

Planning costs money. Lack of planning costs more. Within the past few days several local industries have generously offered to contribute $8000 a year for the next three years, to facilitate the planning of Wilmington's future.

The town is asked to match this with an identical sum of money, for a total of $16,000 a year.

Now - to speculate!

What would prevent the town from applying this $16,000 a year for three years as its share of matching funds, for a $32,000 grant from the Federal government each year - for a grand total of $144,000, which would cost the taxpayers of Wilmington only $24,000.

There has been a lot of talk about the need for planning, in Wilmington.

A lot of planning can be done for $144,000.

A last comment: There is a strange brawl in the making on the problem of rezoning land, at Main and Cross Streets.

Last year the land was zoned to General Business over the objection of the Planning Board, but with the approval of the Finance Committee.

This year the owners seek a rezoning back to a residential district. This has the approval of the Planning Board. The League of Women Voters is expected to support the Planning Board.

The Finance Committee, however, opposes the rezoning. So, too, does the Town Manager.

It shapes up as a test of strength between the Finance Committee and the Planning Board, over a 'planning' issue.

Articles 46, 47 and 48 are nominated as the 'Sleepers' of the Town Meeting.

Zoning article withdrawn

Chairman James Banda read a letter from Harold Smith at last Tuesday's meeting of the Planning Board. Mr. Smith informed the Board that he is withdrawing his article (#43) from the warrant for the Annual Town Meeting this coming Saturday.

Conservation Commission Acquires Land

William Mac Kinnon, Chairman of the Conservation Commission, stated that the Commission had acquired the land in Jackson Heights II on Shawsheen Avenue, which had been set aside for recreational purposes. He produced the deed to this land.

Mac Kinnon, speaking in behalf of the Commission, queried the Planning Board about the overlap in the duties of the two boards.

He was concerned that the Commission did not conflict with the duties of the Planning Board.

Mac Kinnon went on to discuss two items -- Ipswich Watershed and Flood Plain Zoning. He explained that a watershed study was to preserve the area for wildlife and keep the water unpolluted. He would like to initiate a study.

The Commission was interested in investigating and implementing a study on Flood Plain Zoning and would like to know of any objection the Planning Board might have.

Chairman Banda stated that it had none.

Pinewood Sub-division

Bill Smith and Ralph Newell, of Ness Construction Co., presented a definite plan showing a development of seven lots off upper Woburn Street near the Woburn St. School. The new road in this sub-division is to be known as Tara Way.

In order to provide proper drainage, the plan shows a drainage system that would connect with the one in Tonnell's development. The Board approved of this idea, but suggested that Tonnell's plan show the joining.

Smith and Newell stated that they will attend to this.

Perfectly Legal

Chairman Banda announced the receipt of a letter from Town Counsel, Philip Buzzell, answering a Planning Board letter of last November.

Buzzell's letter answered a query concerning the legality of the Board printing a statement of Planning Board recommendations, in relation to zoning.

The answer -- perfectly legal.

Prior to the adjournment of the meeting at 10:50 pm, Chairman Banda reminded the members that elections would be held at the next meeting.

SCHOOL COMMITTEE (From Fr. Page)

High that has been in operation for 8 years.

Mr. Klerstead of the Lowell Gas Company, he said, would answer any questions, if requested. She stated that Mr. Klerstead had informed him that the underwriters considered gas in a relative good position in relation to other fuels.

If a malfunction in the boiler should occur, he had been informed, the safety factor would take over and the system would automatically shut off.

Science Program Progress

Miss Farello and Mr. Sullivan of the Science Department commented on the progress of the Secondary School Science Program. Miss Farello presented an informational outline which projects the curriculum for 10 years.

There are presently 110 students taking the Earth Physical Science course and the students have stated that they like this course better than the conventional course.

Bookkeeper Hired

The Committee voted to hire Owen Matthews of Lowell as a part time bookkeeper since a great deal of State and Federal reports must be filed as well as financial statements for the State School Building Assistance Commission.

Mr. Matthews had previously been employed as a cost analyst and at present is affiliated with the Lowell Assessors Office.

Meeting Night Changed

A motion by Glen Connolly was carried to change the meeting night of the School Committee from the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of the month to the 1st and 3rd Thursday of the month starting May 1.

Selectmen's Meeting

It wasn't the same kind of a Selectmen's meeting, Monday night. With John Brooks gone, and Paul Niles seated in the chair that Brooks had occupied for the past five years there was none of the tension of former meetings. The interesting inuendo between Brooks and Selectman Bender was absent, and Chairman Rene La Rivee no longer had a worried look on his face - he actually smiled a few times.

License

A license to peddle and operate a canteen truck was granted to Joseph S. Malfa of 77 High Street.

Conservation Commission

William D. MacKinnon Jr., of the Conservation Commission attended the meeting to say that he wholeheartedly disagreed with the findings of the Finance Committee, regarding Article 32 of the coming Town Meeting, Saturday.

The Conservation Commission had asked for $5000 in the 1965 town budget, and the Finance Committee had allocated $250, saying that the Commission had not yet developed plans. In addition, the Finance Committee said, the Commission had on hand $250 from last year, and further that it did not have enough information.

MacKinnon delivered to the individual selectmen copies of the five page report which he had given to the members of the Finance Committee. In the report he had said that the $250 was correct at the time the report was being made, but that another $70 in bills had to be paid, leaving a balance of about $170. This, added to $250, MacKinnon told the Selectmen, would give the Commission a total of $330 for the year.

He asked that the Finance Committee be asked to re-consider its actions, and also that the Selectmen go over the item carefully before the Town Meeting of Saturday.

Railroad Bridges

The long standing problem of the bridges over the Boston and Maine Railroad has now been attacked by Town Manager Gerald Bouchard.

Monday night he told the Selectmen that he had been in communication with the State Department of Public Works, in an effort to re-align the intersections of Route 38 and 129, so as to eliminate the Shawsheen Avenue bridge.

The result, Bouchard said, was a letter to the DPW from the B & M, saying that there was a traffic volume of 90 trains a day, under that bridge, and that this would not warrant the elimination of the bridge.

The DPW, Bouchard said, has scheduled the replacement of this bridge and the one at Burlington Avenue, in their 1965 program, subject to funds available.

At the suggestion of Selectman Charles Black, the TM was instructed to meet with Representative Fred Cain and Senator James Long, and urge them to see that the necessary funds were made available.

MBTA

The proposed Malden-Reading extension of the Massachusetts Bay Transit trains is to come up in an executive meeting of the MBTA Thursday (today) at 10:30 am. Mr. LaRivee reported.

Since Mr. LaRivee, who represents Wilmington in the MBTA, is a member of the executive committee, he will take part in the discussions.

Ballardvale Street

Town Manager Bouchard advised the Board of Selectmen that Salvatore Spinoso Jr., who owns a block of land on Ballardvale Street, has been given an award of $350 by the Middlesex County Commissioners, and it will have to be paid by the town. The award was for some land taken by eminent domain, as part of the relocation of Ballardvale Street under Chapter 90 proceedings.

Salem Street Wellfield

Bouchard advised that an agreement on price has been made for a very small piece of land, which makes up a part of the Salem Street Wellfield. Mr. and Mrs. W. Fitzmaurice have agreed to a settlement of $50.

West School

Bouchard told the board that the owners of the land on which the West Intermediate School is to be located have agreed on a price of $11,340 for 21 acres of land. Bouchard said it was a little more than he figured the price would be, but advised the Selectmen to accept.

West School Bids Rejected

All bids for construction of the planned West Intermediate School off Carter Lane were rejected, Monday night, by the Permanent Building Committee. Twelve firms had submitted bids, of which the White Construction Company of Burlington was lowest.

The Permanent Building Committee's action came after advice of both Town Counsel and state authorities. It was unable to resolve a problem of a suitable bid for sub-contracting masonry work.

The PBC also voted to meet next Monday with Town Counsel, Philip Buzzell, to discuss problems about leaks in the roof of the North School.

YOUTHS ENLIST IN U.S. ARMY

Two Wilmington youths have enlisted, for a three year term, in the Regulars of the U.S. Army.

They will take their eight week basic training course at Fort Jackson, South Carolina.

George H. Sumner Jr., 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Sumner Sr., 25 Thurston Avenue, Wilmington, has joined the U.S. Army Air Defense Command and picked his assignment to the 2nd Missile Battalion (NIKE Hercules) 56th Artillery Brigade in the Miami, Florida area. He will report there after basic training to receive technical instruction in guided missiles or electronics for a minimum of fourteen months. Private Sumner attended Wilmington High School.

Richard L. Ingemi, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Ingemi, Bridge Lane, Wilmington has enlisted unassigned and his future training will depend on his aptitudes, desires and the needs of the Army. Private Ingemi had been employed at the Federal Paper Board Co. in Medford before joining the Army.

Wilmington Ford captures third title

Wilmington Ford won its third league title in as many years, when it captured the Merrimac Valley Amateur Hockey League Crown, with a 2 - 2 tie against second place Raytheon.

Wilmington scored first as Mickle set up Hurlburt, who drilled a hard shot by Bob Grayton, the league leading goalie. Wilmington then went ahead 2 - 0 when Reg Chambers stole the puck from a Raytheon defense man and beat the Raytheon goalie with a nice fake.

Wilmington out played Raytheon all the way until a lapse early in the 3rd period. All-American, Art Chisholm scored for Raytheon to make it 2 - 1 and one minute and a half later Bob Poulin scored to tie it up at 2 - 2.

Wilmington came on strong at the end but couldn't get the winning goal.

With the play offs starting next week, here are the final standings.

Outstanding Player

Wilmington's Peter Emery, of the High School Hockey squad, was voted the Outstanding Player of the year, last Saturday, in the final meet of the Merrimac Valley Hockey League.

Emery, the son of Mr and Mrs Talbot Emery of Edgecomb Row, was the high scorer of the year, with a total of 25 goals. He is also on the High School baseball team, has been on the football team, and does just as well scholastically, being a member of the National Honor Society.

The awards were given at the First Annual Jamboree of the league, in which each team played one period against three opponents. No seniors were allowed to participate.

Wilmington was tied twice, and defeated Burlington.

Wilmington and Ipswich tied with no score - 0-0. Chelmsford and Wilmington tied 1-1. Wilmington defeated Burlington 1-0. The Burlington team was the only one to use their regulars, as they had no Seniors in their team this year. Wilmington's goal against Burlington was scored by Jim Jillett, unassisted. Lennie Galvin scored unassisted in the Chelmsford game.

Dick Page

PONY LEAGUE MEETING

The Annual Meeting of the Wilmington Pony League will be held on Friday evening at 7:30 pm, March 12, at the home of Roland I. Wood, 8 Lockwood Road, Wilmington.

The election of officers for the forthcoming year along with the discussion of admitting North Reading teams into the Reading Pony League will be the two main topics of the evening.

Parents of boys who are taking part in the league are urged to attend. All persons interested in the advancement of this form of recreation for young boys between the ages of 12 and 15 years are invited to attend.

SEACRAFT SKATES

Wilmington Seacraft Skates defeated the Joe's Bungalow team by a score of 7 to 4, in a make up game against the South Lawrence team.

Good offensive and defensive play made for an interesting game. Frank Scott played an excellent goal saving game with help from his team mates.

Scoring for Wilmington were Reg Chambers-2 goals, 1 assist; Norm Carlson-1 goal; Buddy Chambers-1 goal, 1 assist; John Curran-1 goal, 1 assist; Cliff Huston-1 goal; Eddie Chasson-1 goal; Hank Moriarty-2 assists; Damion Hurlburt-2 assists; and Richard Walsh-1 assist.

NO SENIORS IN THIS GAME: Wilmington players, in the Saturday Jamboree, at the Billerica Forum.

Richard Page, by virtue of being a defense man for the Wilmington High School team, had no opportunity to score any goals in hockey this year, but he scored with the Wilmington fans, in the last game of the season, in an action shown above.

Page, (on top), is shown settling a dispute with Eddie Carr, of Ipswich. He was thrown out of the game for his actions, but the fans loved it.

Senator Long 'No' vote on Fluoridation

State Senator James J. Long of Woburn, representing the 7th Senatorial District in the Legislature, has announced that he will vote 'No', on the two bills in the legislature which would give elected authorities of towns and cities the power to decide on fluoridation of local water supplies.

At the present time the Massachusetts law is such that the voters of a municipality make the decision. House Bill 1397 and Senate Bill 515, now in the Legislature, would change this to take the power of decision away from the people.

The North Andover Board of Selectmen, several weeks ago, circulated a letter among the Selectmen of the various towns in the Commonwealth, saying that they felt that it should not be their function to decide for their town, and that they felt further that other Boards of Selectmen should vote the same way.

Wilmington's board promptly joined the North Andover board, saying that they did not want the power of decision, and that it was a matter for the voters of the town to decide.

Representative Fred F. Cain of Wilmington has made no public statement regarding his stand on the two bills, but it is understood that privately he has told friends he agrees with the stand of the Wilmington selectmen, and that the decision, if any, should be by the public.

Senator Long, in his announcement concerning his vote said: 'In the last several weeks I have received many hundreds of letters in regard to House Bill 1397 and Senate Bill 515. These pertain to giving elected town and city officials full authority to decide whether or not to fluoridate water supplies.'

'This is legislation that directly affects our public as a whole, and for that reason I would like to inform the public of my views and reasons for voting as I intend to do.'

'The crux of this problem does not lie in the fact of whether fluoridation is necessary or unnecessary; but, it is rather to the taking away from the citizen the right to vote and decide on his own merit if fluoridation is what is desired or not. I feel that without full public choice this would be an infringement upon the Constitutional rights that we hold so precious.'

'To those of you who are in favor of this legislation, I regret that it is necessary to inform you, that after careful deliberation and study of all available information pertaining to fluoridation, it has come down to the above mentioned problem. Therefore, I find that I cannot, with a clear conscience, cast my vote in its favor.'

'I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you who have written to me, both in favor and against these bills. It is always a pleasure for me to receive communications from those who are interested in the betterment of our government. I would like to stress, also, that there will never be a time when I will not appreciate your ideas and opinions on pending legislation.'

Cops won

(Fr. Fr. Page)

He and a friend were thrown out, with the 'Human Buzz Saw' providing much of the excitement when he smacked the friend hard on the nose and knocked him flat.

There was plenty of noise, and the neighbors called the police.

Second fight

Shortly after the police were called, and before they had arrived the Wilmington party left.

Five Wilmington police were standing in the front room of the house, a little while later, about ten minutes of twelve, when the Wilmington gang came back.

The 'Human Buzz Saw' again swung into action, and before he could be stopped he had jumped onto one of the Wilmington gang was belaboring him.

Officer Brennan dragged him off, and snapped his handcuffs on him - both hands.

Brennan then turned to pay attention to the rest of the fighting, which was general, and when he again looked for his prisoner he was gone.

Wilmington police are still looking for him, and the handcuffs.

'If I could find him,' says Chief of Police Lynch, 'and I could make him four inches taller, I would try to get him on the Department! He can handle anyone!'

No injuries were suffered by any Wilmington cop - the first time in months when they have come out of a gang fight (or a fight with an individual man) without someone being injured.

Policemen who took part in the fight were Tommy Brennan, John Ritchie, Tony Langone, Bobby Shelley and James Marsi.

Four of the rioters were sent to Choate Memorial Hospital in Woburn, for treatment, after the riot was over.

PETER KREY APPEARED ON RADIO STATION WNAC

Peter D. Krey, son of Rev. and Mrs. Rudolf Krey, 54 Andover St. Wilmington, discussed the topic, 'Religion on Campus', over Boston radio stations WNAC and WRKO last Sunday evening.

The program is part of the series 'Northeastern University Student Opinion'. The issues presented are picked by the students whose opinions are very much their own and, at times, reflect a stand at conflict with the popular viewpoint.

Peter is a third year student at Northeastern University and an English major in the College of Liberal Arts. He has been a dean's list student for every term since he began studying at Northeastern.

He is a member of the Inter-University Christian Fellowship; the Lutheran Club; the French Conversational Club; the German Club; and the N.U. News, a prize winning undergraduate college newspaper.

As part of Northeastern's Co-operative Plan of Education, he is employed as supervisor of the stockroom at Cabot Corporation, Boston; this program enables upperclass students to alternate periods of classroom instruction with practical experience on regular paying jobs in business.

He is a 1962 graduate of Wilmington High School, where he was a member of the National Honor Society and his class valedictorian.

WHA MEETING
(From Fr Pg)

The Board of Selectmen, in that town (Hardwick - Ed.) said he could attend meetings here. We need five members at our meetings. He has some knowledge of carpentry, and I don't know anything about it. He knows that tonight is the meeting. He could be here. So could Ernie Crispo—his wife could have phoned if he was sick.

Peterson: Unfortunately, I cannot speak for them. I knew in my own case I have had to make an effort to get here. It costs me money to do it.

Donahue: Right! And me too! Don't crab about money! It costs us pennies and nickles to do this job! If we don't like it, we can give it up!

Mrs. Kasabuski: A year ago tonight -- the annual meeting. We had to postpone it because Forrest and Crispo were not here. We had no election of officers. Finally after five or six weeks, we had a quorum, and then we elected our officers.

Peterson: That was last year. Kasabuski: Somebody's got to be here.

Donahue: We have business to conduct. You'll never hold anything up for me. If we have a quorum, let's have a meeting -- so let's get on with our official duties!

Peterson: I have something to say (to Mrs. Kasabuski) -- Will you accept the chair?

Kasabuski: I will.

Peterson: Because of the personal responsibilities to my family -- as much as I regret it -- I am unable to continue as a member. I am going to have to submit my resignation.

Mrs. Kasabuski: We can shift the hour of the meeting.

Peterson: In the four years on this board, I don't think I have missed more than 10 or 12 meetings. It is impossible for me to devote more time. I hereby submit my resignation, as of this moment, 10:20 pm.

Donahue: Put it in writing! We won't have a quorum, and we cannot continue the meeting.

By 10:23 the resignation was signed and accepted by Mrs. Kasabuski. She then declared the meeting ended.

There will be an attempt to have a meeting next Tuesday, at 7:30 pm.
